

WHITE-TAILED DEER SUMMIT

AUGUST 3, 2017

Taylor County Expo Center - Big Country Hall
1982 Lytle Way, Abilene TX 79602

1:30 p.m. Registration

Session 1: Managing Property for White-tailed Deer

Managing Free-Range WTD (Genetics, Nutrition, Herd Management)

-Dr. John Tomecek, AgriLife Extension Wildlife Specialist, San Angelo

Deer Habitat Management and Managed Lands Deer Program Highlights

-Annaliese Scoggin, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department Biologist, Abilene

Effects of Culling on Genetics of Deer Populations: Results of long-term Research

-Dr. Randy DeYoung, Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, Texas A&M University-Kingsville

Modeled Impacts of Chronic Wasting Disease on WTD Populations in South Texas

-Dr. Aaron Foley, Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, Texas A&M University-Kingsville

5:30 p.m. Registration & Catered Dinner

Session 2: Hunting Season Success

Aging Deer on the Hoof

-Dr. John Tomecek, AgriLife Extension Wildlife Specialist, San Angelo

WTD Nutrition and Supplemental Feeding

-Scott Hohensee, Wildlife Specialist, Purina Animal Nutrition

WTD Hunting Lease Management and Working with Outfitters

-Greg Simons, Wildlife Biologist, Wildlife Systems, Inc.

Preserving Our Hunting Heritage and Ensuring a Successful Hunting Experience

-Marc Bartoskewitz, Ranch Manager, Cook Canyon and Clear Fork Ranches

Door prizes, including

a $500 voucher towards the firearm of your choice!

Pre-register by calling 325-672-6048 or visiting taylor.agrilife.org

Individual Registration $15 before August 1st * $20 at door